The Board of Prominent met yesterday for the first time since the news of Miss Manning's death reached the Union.

The Members of the Board, many of whom have been associated

Say, dear Ann Whitney, that although I have met Min Manning but seldom and only during these last few years, the radiant quality of her rare character has so impressed me that grief in having lost her tangible presence is swallowed up in the sense of the victory of her unconquerable spirit and gratitude that she has lived.

Yours with bliss in the reality - of the spirit that makes you one with us, untouched by any accident of death,

Henrietta L. Goodrich.
